

Elephant

Ask for perception You talk about life as if you're out to get me

There's no room for disconnecting bits and pieces and the parts that connect words to see

Is there nothing to talk about here?!

Let's leave the light on tonight,
for the elephant in the room

Talk may seem senseless going onwards as if You're out to get me

within rhyme we might seem careless No ones to blame for words that we may never speak

Is there nothing to talk about here?!

Let's leave the light on tonight,
for the elephant in the room
